

Certificate of Course Completion

Prathamesh Beldar

has successfully achieved student level credential for completing the Managing a Business Venture course.

The student was able to proficiently:

- Explain financing and accounting for entrepreneurial ventures.
- Describe various networking opportunities for entrepreneurs.
- Identify the major areas of operations management and the operational needs of an entrepreneurial venture.
- Explain how a business's purpose helps to determine the initial business structure.
- Describe the advantages and disadvantages of different types of business structures.
- Explain how capital acquisition, business domicile, and technology can impact decisions about a business's structure.
- Describe ways to identify problems and manage difficult decisions in an entrepreneurial venture.
- Describe ways to mitigate and manage risks.

Scan to Verify

Laura Quintana

---

Laura Quintana
Vice President and General Manager
Cisco Networking Academy

October 15, 2024